EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 47 and 54:

Change: "internet" to --Internet--.

Specification

2. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

The following titles are suggested:

1. Using an Address Signal to Access Video Tags and Markers.
2. Generation and Insertion of Indicators Using an Address Signal Applied to a Database.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-7 and 41-55 are allowed.

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Block et al (US 7,200,852) discloses a method of generating and inserting an indicator into a video stream and a system for encoding a video stream with indicators (Figure 1, Figure 2, 260) comprising: a time code generator or synchronization unit that generates a time code signal that is synchronized with the video stream (Column 4, lines 55-67, Column 5, lines 1-15, 62-67, Columns 6-8, Tables 1 and 2) and an encoder that encodes said video stream with said indicator signal to generate a video stream encoded with said indicators (Figure 2, 260, Column 11, lines 37-62). Shoff et al (US 2001/0001160) discloses an author creating HTML tags, the tags comprising a trigger, the trigger is a time in the video stream, which is used to refer to an event which pulls an action to an Internet address (Table 2).

The prior art of record does not teach (in conjunction with remaining limitations): decoding a time code signal to generate an address, accessing a database using the address to access a set of indicators stored in the database and encoding the video stream with indicators.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
